Gunn—Clarke.

The wedding of Miss Theresa Louise Clarke, daughter of Arthur B. Clarke, to Julien Gunn, Commonwealth's attorney for the county of Henrico, was celebrated at 6:30 o'clock last evening in First Baptist Church, the Rev. George W. McDaniel, D. D., officiating. The church was handsomely decorated with palms, Southern smilax, candelabra and white chrysanthemums, and the bride party came in to the strains of "Lohengrin's" Wedding March.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her in marriage. She was beautifully gowned in white satin draped with embroidered chiffon and trimmed with duchesse lace. A coronet of orange blossoms held her veil in place, and her bouquet was of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sisters, Misses Martha and Josephine Clarke, as maids of honor. They wore yellow satin frocks en princess, with overdresses of white marquisette, yellow lace picture hats, and carried violets.

William Forbes was the groom's best man, and his other attendants were Stanley Clarke, Fred Sitterding, Randolph Cardozo and James Cowardin.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunn will return from a Northern tour to occupy their home at Westhampton. A large number of out-of-town guests attended the wedding.

They will receive the congratulations of Richmond friends after November 25.

Mr. Massey is vice-president of the Massey Business College. Indications point to a goodly representation of society folk at the bride's party which will be given this afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock in the parlors of the Woman's Club, under the auspices of the Junior-Hollywood Memorial Association.

Mr. Arthur M. Lewis, of Charlottesville, Va., a cousin of the bride, performed the ceremony. Miss Agnes Gordon Whiting was maid of honor, and Dr. Clyde Matthews, best man.

A reception followed the ceremony, guests being entertained in the spacious parlors and hallway of the Waters home, which, on this occasion, was the handsomest in Baltimore. Owens, 1228 East Biddle Street, was married in the home of her father to Walter A. Detrick, of Richmond. The young couple met in Richmond four years ago. Miss Owens was on a visit to relatives and was introduced to her future husband at a reception. Mr. Detrick showed his interest in his new friend at once, and when she returned to Baltimore he was not long in making her a visit. His trips to this city increased, and had an important result for Miss Owens and himself when their engagement was announced several months ago.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. William T. Way, pastor of Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal Church. The bride's only attendant was Miss Dorothy Schley, a cousin, was acted as flower girl. It is said he will make a fight for it, and will probably support Dr. A. J. Roller for the position.

NOTICED BALD SPOT COMING ON HEAD

Interesting Story of Consultation with Dermatologist and Successful Use of Cuticura. Also Case of Severe Ivy Poisoning, Relief of Which by Cuticura was Permanent.

"Nine years ago I noticed a bald spot coming on my head and, as I was only nineteen years old, it did not seem natural, as it was on the side of my head instead of on top. My mother advised my seeing a dermatologist and I did so, one of the best in Boston, and he said it was due to a germ I must have got at the barber's. He couldn't assure a cure, but by treating each hair separately by electricity, he said, the hair might come out white or gray, if it came out at all. He proposed giving me a treatment every month for six months at ten dollars a treatment. When I told my mother she advised using Cuticura and this I did, using Cuticura Soap and Ointment every day. In two months my hair commenced to grow, and in six months one would never have known there had been any trouble, the hair coming out being black, the exact shade of my own. I have never had any trouble since, and feel I can't say half enough for Cuticura."

Another member of our family was terribly poisoned by poison ivy and every summer for six years the blisters came, bursting and causing great suffering. We tried everything recommended by the best physicians, but with no good result. Finally we tried Cuticura and obtained relief in a very short time which was permanent. She has never had any trouble since, so Cuticura is invaluable to us, you see. G. J. Browne, 1 Remington St., Dorchester, Mass., Jan. 29, 1910.

This letter is but one of hundreds giving proof of the success of the Cuticura Remedies in treating the skin and scalp. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

NEW YORK WOMAN HAS LEADING PART

Miss Richman to Make Two Addresses—Outline of Trustees' Meeting.

Regarded by the executive committee of the Virginia Educational Conference as one of the most fortunate of its successes in securing speakers, Miss Julia Richman, a district superintendent of schools of New York City, will deliver two addresses next week, which are expected to be notable features of the conference. Miss Richman has not merely a local, but a national reputation as a lecturer on school subjects. She talks of the relation of the teachers and the pupil, and of the backward child and his development.

Indications are that a greater number of school trustees will attend the annual meeting of the Virginia State Trustees' Association, one of the bodies forming the conference, than has been the case in other years. The president is George W. Zachary, of Alexandria county, and the secretary is E. G. Pankard, of Northampton. In connection with the meeting of trustees, the following subjects are announced for addresses: "Difficulties in Graded and High Schools in Rural Communities," "Trustees' Part in Electing Teachers," "Promotion and Building of Rural Schools," "Co-operation of District School Boards with Division Superintendents," "Discipline in Public Schools—The Trustee's Part," "Public Schools as Centres of Social Interest."

Among the speakers will be: R. E. Youngblood, of Prince William; J. B. Terrell, of Mecklenburg; R. H. Farrier, of Giles; W. A. E. McShane, of Alexandria; Dr. H. R. Coleman, of Rockbridge; Roy D. White, of Accomac, and Julius Healey, of Middlesex.

All sessions, whether held in the City Auditorium or in the John Marshall High School, will be open to the public. Tickets will not be required in any case.

GOVERNOR MAKES ADDRESSES AT FAIR

Annual Exhibition of Rockingham Club—Apple Growers Meet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Harrisonburg, Va., November 17.—With the apple growers holding forth in the Daily News Hall, and the first annual fair of the Rockingham Boys' Corn Club in progress in Assembly Hall, this is a big day in Harrisonburg. Governor Mann delivered the principal address this afternoon at the Corn Fair.

In the Daily News Hall the fourth annual meeting of the Rockingham Horticultural Society, together with the annual exhibit, opened at 10 o'clock. Professor H. L. Price, of Blacksburg, delivered the principal address, taking apple culture for his subject. Following him, Earle Peters, of Carlisle, Pa., spoke on "Observations of Orchards in Virginia."

A dozen money prizes were awarded to various county exhibitors, while a handsome silver loving cup for the best general apple exhibit was also awarded.

T. N. Thompson was elected president of the Horticultural Society, and W. J. Dingeldine, secretary and treasurer. W. B. and W. M. Miller won the loving cup.

In the Assembly Hall of the town the Corn Fair occupied the entire day. Exhibits of county-grown corn were made by twenty-six boys of the club. The boys' judging contest and addresses by Miss Sale and Miss Scott, of the Harrisonburg State Normal School, was the morning program. Professor O. B. Martin, of the Department of Agriculture, had charge of the judging contest.

At 1:15 o'clock Governor Mann delivered the principal address of the day with a practical common-sense talk to farmers. Governor Mann arrived last night from Front Royal, where he had made an address at the Poultry Show, and after spending the night at the Kavanaugh Hotel, was driven in an automobile to Dayton, Rockingham county, four miles distant, where he delivered an address to the students of Shenandoah Collegiate Institute, the leading institution of the Church of the Brethren in Virginia.
